PRESENT SIMPLE

3rd PERSON SINGULAR

- In the present simple, when the subject is the third person singular (he, she or it), the verb changes: -s or a variation is added.
- Verb + -s (general rule): Most verbs simply add -s.

  e.g.: He plays tennis. // She reads books. // It rains a lot here
- Verbs ending in -ss, -sh, -ch, -x, -o → add -es:

  e.g.:pass → He passes the ball. // wash → She washes the car. // watch → He watches TV. // fix → She fixes computers. // go → It goes fast.
- Verbs ending in a consonant + y → change the y to -ies

  e.g.: study → She studies every night. // carry → He carries the bags. // try → It tries to escape.

BE CAREFUL! This only applies to affirmative sentences. The verb does not take an -s in the negative orinterrogative forms (it is already in 'does / doesn't').
